

CITY OF NORTHGLENN

TUCK LATERAL TREE PRUNING
BID NO. 2023-030

ADDENDUM NO. 1

DATED: December 11, 2023

TO: PROSPECTIVE BIDDERS

The following adds to, supplements, amends or clarifies by way of explanation, portions of the Contract Documents, Specifications, and Drawings for the above named project.

NOTE: It will be the responsibility of the Bidder to acknowledge receipt of Addenda on the Bid Form as part of his/her submitted proposal. Failure to do so will be grounds for the City to reject the proposal.

The Contract Documents, including the Specifications and Drawings are hereby modified by the following items:

SPECIFICATIONS:

NONE

DRAWINGS:

NONE

QUESTIONS:

1. Do we need a stump grinder for the trees that will be removed?
 - No, simply cut as low as possible.
2. What is to be done with small trees in the way of removing tree #1 and #2?
 - Volunteer trees can be removed as necessary.
3. Will we have access to the neighbor's yard for removal?
 - Yes, the City of Northglenn is still trying to make contact with the second house.
4. Do we have to close the trail?
 - Yes, the company awarded the bid will assume responsibility for closing trail access to the public.

5. Do we need a permit to close the public trail?

- No, the contractor will need to notify the city prior to the trail closure so we can communicate this to the public via our social media outlets.

6. Will the contractor have access to the other side of the canal for pruning tree #14?

- Yes, the city will gain approval from the school district.

7. Can we dump tree material at the City of Northglenn Maintenance and Operations facility?

- Yes, the bid price will need to reflect this discount if dumping at Northglenn's yard.

8. Can a service be offered such as an ISA Tree Risk Assessment for each tree that is pruned? Am I allowed to send in a typed-up letter stating what I am offering and why it may be beneficial? Or are the forms provided the only things I am allowed to send in?

- The City of Northglenn is not looking for tree risk assessments on this bid at this time.
